

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all, I extend my heartfelt gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Oinam Ranjit Singh, Associate Professor, Department of History, Bodoland University, Debagarh, Kokrajhar, BTAD, Assam for all the precious time and effort that he has given in supervising this Ph.D. Research work. He has not only provided his able guidance to complete my work in time, but also has taught me the finer details of Ethno-historical and socio-anthropological research. I would always remain indebted to him for his invaluable suggestions, inspirations and proper guidance without which my research work would have been difficult to complete within the stipulated time frame.

I am also thankful to all the faculty members and the office staff of the Department of History, Bodoland University for their words of encouragement and moral support during the course of my research work. I do express my special gratitude to Dr. Jaysagar Wary, Head of the Department, History, BU as well as Dr. Nushar Bargayary, Assistant Professor, Department of History, BU for extending their kind helping hands in sorting out some technical difficulties in my work.

I also owe my special gratitude to my colleagues of History Department, Kokrajhar Government College, especially to Mr. Sushanta Narzay, Head of Department, for extending their constant moral and material supports in doing my research work.

I am personally thankful to Dr. Binoy Kumar Brahma, former principal of Kokrajhar Govt. College and Dr. Banabina Brahma, Principal, kokrajhar Govt. College for providing me all the necessary help and support while doing my work.

I am fully indebted to the Library Staff of Kokrajhar Government College, NEHU, Gauhati University, Kokrajhar District library for extending their help and cooperation.

I also express my special gratitude to the former leaders and activists of Bodo nationalist organizations like ABSU, BSS, ABWWF, etc. who provided me with all the useful information through their interviews and intimate discussions. I am also wholly indebted to different scholars and learned elders for their co-operation and guidance while doing my field work.

I also express my profound gratitude to all those persons who have directly or indirectly helped me in the course of my Ph.D. work.

Lastly, I convey my deepest gratitude to my beloved family- my wife Samom Sharmila Mushahary, my daughter Vedhika Mushahary and my son Lirhun Mushahary for sparing their most valuable family time and ensuring me to do my best work.

(Gautam Mushahary)

Date:

Place: Bodoland University