

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The study has been conducted with the prime objectives of explaining the importance of fish culture in the economy of Assam, to examine the role of fish culture in the generation of employment and income in Assam, and finally to find out the present problems faced by this sector and solutions for its future prospects.

I am greatly indebted to Dr. Manjit Das, Associate Professor, Department of Economics, Bodoland University, Kokrajhar, BTAD, Assam under whose supervision the study was done. It is privilege to me to express my profound gratitude to him as the study could not be completed without his helpful guidance.

The study has been mainly based on field survey. In carrying out field survey in connection with the study, I received support and assistance from a large number of people. The sample fisherman families gave full co-operation in providing all types of information. Jahidul and Ashraful Hussain of M.C. College, Barpeta helped me in data collection in the field survey. Sujit Talukdar, Rajbir Saha and Bhargab Sarma helped me in processing these data. I am thankful to all of them.

I express my sincere thanks to library authorities of Bodoland University, Gauhati University, Dibrugarh University, Assam Agricultural University (Jorhat), OKD Institute of Social Change and Development (Guwahati), IIT (Guwahati), NIRD-NERC (Guwahati) for allowing me to use their library facilities.

I would like to offer my thanks to Dr. Babita Choudhury (Principal) of R.G. Baurah College, Ajit Talukdar of R.G.Baurah College, Dr. Dipak Pathak of R.G. Baurah College, Triveni Choudhury of R.G. Baruah College, Dr. Amarendra Kalita of Gauhati Commerce College, Nityananda Pathak of Gauhati University Library, Dr. Dhruvajyoti Sarma, Fishery Officer, Jugal Thakuria, Statistical Assistant, Bholanath Das, Statistical Assistant, Hitesh Bhuyan, Junior Assistant, and Babita Medhi, Computer of Directorate of Fisheries , Govt. of Assam, Tarali Nayak of Jibanlata Girls' High School, Barpeta, Kalyani Kalita of Sarupeta High School, Sarupeta and my Bhindeon Khargenshwar Bayan for their help and encouragement.

My wife Chandana Das of Bajali College, Pathsala and my daughter Poojita Bayan and son Subhashis Bayan had to bear a lot of hardship in the course of my study. I must acknowledge my gratitude to them.
