

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This Ph.D work titled ‘Society and Economy of the Bodos during Colonial Period’ finally came into being under the support and sincere efforts and guidance that I received from the distinguished personalities in various ways.

At the very outset I would like to acknowledge gratitude to both the Supervisors and mentors Dr. Luke Daimary and Dr. Oinam Ranjit Singh. It is very fortunate for me to have both the supervisors. I am very much indebted to both of them for their creative suggestions, insightful guidance, untiring motivation and active cooperation in carrying out my research work smoothly and successfully. Without them, this work would have been incomplete.

I also express my gratitude to Dr. Jaysagar Wary, HOD, Department of History, Bodoland University and Dr. Sudev Chandra Basumatary, Department of History, Bodoland University for their encouraging words and ideas, which they provided for my research work. Besides that, I offer my heartfelt regards to Jaydip Narzary and Dr. Nushar Bargary, Department of History, Bodoland University, Kokrajhar, for their insightful recommendations during my research work.

It is very pleasure to offer my deep gratitude to Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR) for awarding JRF and facilitating financial grants to me during my research work. This support immensely helped me financially to run my research work smoothly, without this support my research work would have been incomplete.

I have no language to offer sincere gratitude to the most dedicated teacher that I have come across, Dr. Sushanto Narzary, Department of History, Kokrajhar Government College, Kokrajhar, who from the very beginning guided my academic career and inspired me a lot in pursuing this research work. I also would like to specially thank to Dr. Janik Lal Narzary, Dr. Nabin Hakhrary, Dr. Santosh Bora, Chilarai Mushahary and Kamal Kumar Brahma of Bodofa U.N. Brahma College, Dotma and Anjan Upadhyay of Udalguri College, Udalguri, for their insightful and encouraging words to me, for the completion of my research work.

It would be incomplete without acknowledging the encouragement and support of my near and dear friends namely Banti Brahma, Dr. Prithwiraj Swargiary, Jogesh Brahma, Charan Narzary, Gogan Basumatary, Lachit Mushahary, Eragdao Narzary, Manindra Basumatary, Subungkhang Basumatary, Ankur Patar and Birgrang Basumatary, who supported me morally and helped in various ways during my research work. I also convey my sincere gratitude to Ashok Kr. Basumatary for always encouraging me to pursue this work.

My sincere gratitude also goes to the Librarian and official staffs of Padmashree Modaram Brahma Central Library, Bodoland University, Kokrajhar; Krishna Kanta Handique Central Library, Gauhati University, Guwahati; Indian Council of Historical Research (ICHR), N.E. Region, Guwahati; Assam State Archive, Dispur; Assam Institute of Research for Tribals and Scheduled Caste, Guwahati; Department of Historical and Antiquarian Studies (DHAS), Guwahati and District Library, Kokrajhar, who were always warm and supportive in finding required materials related to my research work.

I also thankful to all my research colleagues of Bodoland University and other Universities especially to Dr. Dahal Kungur Narzary, Dr. Kumud Ranjan Basumatary, Dr. Gautam Brahma, Dr. Nijra Brahma, Phungbili Basumatary, Eliah Islary and Dhanan Brahma of Gauhati University for sharing their ideas and experiences in writing up the research work.

Last but not least, I offer my heart core gratitude to my inspiring mother who wholeheartedly gave me this opportunity to do and complete the research work in spite of shouldering various family burdens. I would also like to express my gratitude to my sister Usha Rani Basumatary, Brother In-law Dijaraj Basumatary and my cousin brother Brihattam Brahma who morally and physically helped me in various ways in completing this research work successfully. I would also like to convey my gratitude to my maternal uncle Uttam Narzary for always boosting me morally.
