

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At this very onset, it is a matter of great delight for me to acknowledge my intellectual indebtedness to those people who extended their valuable cooperation without which it would have been impossible for me to bring out this thesis.

First and foremost, I would like to express my sincere gratitude, appreciation, and heartiest thanks to my supervisor, Dr. Bhimraj Basumatary, Assistant Professor, Department of Mathematical Sciences, Bodoland University, for his thoughtful pieces of advice, support, and wealth of experience, which have made the work a success.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to Dr. Mukunda Dewri, HOD, Department of Mathematical Sciences, Bodoland University, for giving me this opportunity. Also, I would like to thank all the faculty members for their valuable advice and suggestions.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my close friends and research scholar friends for their encouragement.

I am deeply thankful to my father, Mr. Bandhuran Wary, for his constant support and encouragement. Sincere thanks are also extended to my younger brother, Dwithun Wary, and my uncle, Mr. Sanjarang Wary, for their unconditional help and continued support.

Last but not least, my mother, Mrs. Anita Wary, who has always been a constant source of inspiration and encouragement in every moment of my life.
