

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my esteemed research guide Dr. Bhupen Narzaree, Professor, Department of Bodo, Gauhati University for his constant encouragement and valuable suggestions during my Ph.D period. I am grateful to him as this thesis would not have been possible without his help, support and patience throughout my research work.

I extend my most sincere thanks to Dr. Indira Boro, Professor and Head of the Department of Bodo, Bodoland University for giving me the opportunity to pursue my doctoral studies and her valuable advice and encouragement will remain forever in my life.

At the very initial stage of my Ph.D research I was confused with the selection of proper topic of Ph.D thesis. At that time my teacher, eminent linguist of Boro language, Dr. Phukan Ch. Basumatary, Professor, Department of Bodo, Bodoland University, Kokrajhar helped me by suggesting a proper topic for my thesis and advised me during the Ph.D tenure. I extend my deep sense of gratitude and appreciation to him. And I want to extend my gratitude and thankfulness to Dr. Birhash Giri Basumatary, Principal, Bijni College and Dr. Swarna Prabha Chainary, Professor and HOD, Department of Bodo, Gauhati University who has been encouraged and advised me in this research work.

I would like to extend my heartiest thanks to all the respected teachers of the department of Bodo, Bodoland University, Kokrajhar for their valuable suggestions.

I convey my heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Dipali Kherkatary, HOD, department of Bodo, B.H. College, Howly who has been always encouraged and advised me in this field.

I offer my love and affectionate to my friends who always been any kind of help and co-operation during the Ph.D period. Especially I must mention the name of my intimate friend Mr. Arun Boro who helped me at the time of data collection.

Last but not the least, I would like to thank with gratitude, the support and love of my family members: my parents, my wife and lovely daughter, my elder brother and sister-in-law and dear niece. Without their constant support and encouragement; this would not have been possible for me.
