B H U T A N                      A R U N A C H A L P R A D E S H

The map shows the Bodoland Territorial Council area, which is a long, narrow strip of land. It is bounded by Bhutan to the north and West Bengal to the west. The area is divided into several districts: Dibrugarh, Bongaigaon, Barpeta, Nalbari, Kamrup, and Daarang. The word 'BODOLAND' is written in large, bold letters across the center of the map. A compass rose indicates North, South, West, and East. A legend titled 'REFERENCES' provides symbols for international, state, and district boundaries, as well as district headquarters, sub-divisional offices, railway lines, and rivers and streams.
