

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

There are many to whom I am indebted for their help and kind co-operation in completing my research work. First of all I would like to express my deepest sense of gratitude to Dr Jyotiraj Pathak, Professor, Department of Political Science, Bodoland University, Kokrajhar for his valuable guidance and supervision, without his encouragement and able guidance it would have not been possible for me to accomplish the research.

I am grateful to all the respondents and office bearers of ABSU of Baksa and Udalguri District and different Bodo organizations and political parties for extending their sincere co-operation without which present study would never been concluded.

I am sincerely thankful to Jhanin Mushahari, Head Department of Political Science and other faculty members of the Department of Political Science, Bodoland University for providing me valuable suggestions and encouragement.

I extend my gratitude to staff members of the Department of Political Science, Bodoland University and the staff members Academic Branch, Bodoland University for extending their valuable co-operation.

I am thankful to my wife Mrs. Pramila Baro for her co-operation and encouragement during the course of present study.

I am very thankful to Pramod Boro, President, ABSU and Dr. Rita Baro Asistant Professor and renowned writer, Sahitya Okademy award winner for giving me interview for present study.

I am thankful to Prasen Daimary, Principal, Tangla College for his support and encouragement for conducting the study.

A number of friends have helped me in one or the other. I express my sincere thanks for them also.

Samarjit Baro