First and foremost, I would like to convey my sincere gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Mridula Devi Associate professor Department of Economics Bodoland University, for all her support and guidance to me for this present work.

Next, I would like to acknowledge Dr. Manjit Das, Associate professor, Department of Economics Bodoland University, as he went through my thesis and blessed me with his valuable suggestions.

I offer special thanks to J. C. Kalita, Administrative Officer, IIE Guwahati, for his incredible learning to me regarding micro-entrepreneurship. Also, I appreciate him for his kind support and active reply to my calls and any questions regarding micro-entrepreneurship.

For this research work, I have gone through face to face interview with the women micro entrepreneurs of Kokrajhar and Dhubri District. I appreciate them for providing appropriate information necessary for my research, without which the research would have been incomplete.

I acknowledge my husband, Mr. Harihar Nath Jha, for his active involvement in field survey, valuable suggestions, and for all his support in the journey of my Ph.D and journey of my life.

Last but the highest gratitude, I would prefer to give to my parents and my only sister for their incredible inspiration and emotional support in the journey of my life, without which nothing has been possible in my life. It is very regretful to express that I started the journey of my Ph.D work with the blessings of my parents but today one of them, i.e., my mother is not with us. I solicit God, may her soul rest in peace.
