

P R E F A C E

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my respectable Guide, Dr. B. K. Brahma, Dept. Of Biotechnology, Bodoland University, for his guidance and valuable suggestions for the completion of my work. I would like to deliver my deepest gratitude to Dr. Arvind Kr. Goyal, Asst. Prof. & Head, Bamboo Technology, Dept. Of Biotechnology, for his help in keeping my progress on schedule. I convey my heartiest thanks to Dr. Sandeep Das, HOD, Department of Biotechnology, Dept. Of Biotechnology, Dr. J. Sarmah, Associate Professor, Dept. of Biotechnology, and Dr. Sanjay Basumatary, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Chemistry, for their kind help and support on the way of the research procedures.

I would offer my sincere indebtedness to Dr. R. N. Sinha, Principal, Science College, Kokrajhar for his inspiring suggestions to carry on my work. I would like to express my thankfulness to all the colleagues and Technical staffs of the Department of Chemistry, Science College, Kokrajhar and special thanks to Dr. Kushal Choudhury, Asst. Professor, Department of Zoology for their good cooperation and fruitful suggestions in doing the research work. My grateful thanks are delivered to all the Technicians of EFRAC, Kolkata for their active support in the laboratory works.

I would convey the deepest gratitude to my mother, Dr. Bhaswati Chakraborty, Associate Professor (Retd.) of Bongaigaon College for her keen support and steady inspiration in every stage of the research programme and my father Late Sanjib Chakraborty, Avocate, Gauhati Highcourt without whose inspiration the work would not be completed. I do extend my heartiest appreciation to Mr. M. A. Kausar, Asst. Professor, Department of Chemistry, Science College, Kokrajhar for his steady enthusiastic encouragement and dynamic support from the very first step till the fulfillment of the work.

It will be my immense pleasure to mention the name of my little daughter Miss Shreyosi Maitra who has accepted a lot of challenges in leading her daily activities without my support. Finally, I would mention the extreme support of my dear students of the Department of Chemistry, Science College, Kokrajhar.
