First and foremost, I am grateful to my supervisor Dr. Luke Daimary for his precious suggestions, intellectual guidance and for thoroughly going through the thesis in all its minute details, despite his busy schedule. His insightful comments and deep knowledge of the subject have been invaluable assets for me throughout. I also owe a great debt for his kindness and generosity.

I am thankful to Professor Amrendra Kumar Thakur, Department of History, North Eastern Hill University for his valuable suggestions, intellectual guidance and for providing materials to me despite of his busy schedules. I remain ever grateful to him.

I am grateful to the University Grant Commission New Delhi for providing me financial assistance through the Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR).

I am grateful to the faculty members of the Department of History of Bodoland University for their help and valuable suggestions in completing this work.

I am grateful to my parents Mrs. Bhanu Rani Brahma and Mr. Parameswar Brahma for their kindness, sacrifice, moral support, encouragement and for all helped rendered to me. I would love to mention my twins Master Redeemsa (Rege) and Master Redengsa (Regan) for bearing with my scheduling.

I remember with respect my grandmother (Late) Smt. Hemolata Brahma, who left for heavenly abode in 2014 before the completion of my thesis, and (Late) Mr. Baron Basumatary, who also left for heavenly abode in 2017. I will always cherish their motivation and support.

I owe my gratitude to my husband, Mr. Dersin Daimari, the wind beneath my wings. It is only because of his love, patience, sacrifice, invaluable help, emotional support and shouldering the responsibility of parenting our twins for which my dream of completing my thesis came true.

Last, but not the least, I thank God for giving me wisdom, good health and strength to finish this work.
