

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

At the very outset, I am profoundly grateful to my Supervisor Dr. Sekhar Brahma, Registrar, Bodoland University and Co-Guide Dr. Oinam Ranjit Singh, Associate Professor, Department of History, Bodoland University, Deborgaon, Kokrajhar, BTC, Assam for untiring help and invaluable guidance at every phase of my work.

I am deeply indebted to Sudev Chandra Basumatary, Head of Department, Department of History, Bodoland University, perhaps, without his guidance my research work would not come into reality.

I owe immensely to Mr. Hira Charan Narzinary, a noted Bodo Historian who assisted me for visiting in several libraries of Kolkata. I also extend my sincere gratitude to Mr. Nushar Bargayary & Eliah Islary, Ph. D scholars of Bodoland University, Redian Narzary, Assistant Professor, U. N. Brahma College, Kajalgaon and Ebriya Kaklary, Assistant Professor, Bengtol College for prove reading and correcting the errors.

I acknowledge my deepest gratitude to my father Mr. Ranju Wary, mother Nila Wary and my beloved wife Pronita Basumatary who made sure, I am able to be at my best at any time of the duty.

My sincere thank goes to all the staff of Assam State Archive, especially to Arnab Jyoti Kashyap, Hiren Baishya, Baharul Islam for providing me all necessary reports and files without delay. I am also thank to all the office staff of National Library, Kolkata, Bengal State Archive, Raja Ram Mohan Roy Library, Kolkata, NEHU Central Library, ICSSR Library, NEHU, District Library, Guwahati, Assam State Museum, Directorate Antiquarian Studies of Guwahati, Guwahati University Library and ICHR Library of Guwahati University for providing me many valuable information and sources.

Place: Bodoland University

(Jaysagar Wary)

Date: 29-05-2017